Education

Mr Bulley completed his Masters of Laws, Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Arts degrees at the University of Sydney, graduating in 1994, 1985 and 1983 respectively. In August 2008 he completed a non-assessment unit in the University of Sydney Masters course in Insolvency and Bankruptcy Law.

Principal Areas of Practice

Since coming to the Bar in 1997, Mr Bulley has appeared in a variety of jurisdictions, for parties in a wide range of matters. He is briefed by a variety of solicitors' firms including large firms in the Sydney CBD as well as small firms and sole practitioners outside the CBD and in country NSW.

His practice now involves a wide range of commercial and equity matters and Mr. Bulley has also appeared for parties in insolvency and bankruptcy, land and property disputes and wills and estate litigation.

In more recent times Mr. Bulley has also appeared in appellate matters in the New South Wales Court of Appeal and in the Supreme Court.

Professional career

Mr Bulley was a Solicitor and then Senior Associate at Ebsworth & Ebsworth, where he worked in the litigation department for ten years. During that time he worked in nearly all aspects of the firm's litigation practice. Specifically, his experience in litigation included contracts of insurance, professional indemnity, transport and commercial litigation.

Publications and Professional

Mr Bulley was co-author, together with Keith Mason QC and Professor John Carter, of the Restitution title published as part of Halsbury's Laws of Australia by Butterworths. Mr Bulley also assisted in the preparation of Restitution Law in Australia, the first textbook to be published in Australia on the law of Restitution.

In 2010 and 2011 Mr. Bulley gave presentations as part of the City of Sydney Law Society's Continuing Professional Development Programme on topics including setting aside Statutory Demands and Solicitors' obligations in dealing with Counsel's Advice.

Mr Bulley was involved in the Duty Barrister Scheme conducted by the NSW Bar Association from 1997 to 2002 and was a member of the Bar Association's Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee for three years until 2009.

Since 2009 Mr. Bulley has been involved as an Advocacy Instructor in the Bar Readers Course run by the NSW Bar Association.

Mr Bulley has been a Director of Counsel's Chambers Limited since 2007.
